RE: Contractor Prequalification Rule 18.27.5
Interpretative letter relating to Pf claims performance measurement

Dear Mr. Beck,

After considering the issue, I have decided to rescind the Interpretative Letter dated April 15, 2019. Instead, the Department of Transportation (NMDOT) will assign a value of zero to claim value for purposes of calculating the Pf claim as that process is described in 18.27.5.11.C of the Contractor Prequalification Rule for those projects selected for use of the Dispute Resolution Board process.

Should you or any of your members have any questions or comments relating to this interpretative letter, please submit them in writing to:
NMDOT-#GO-prequal-questions@state.nm.us.

Thank you,

Rhonda C. Lopez
