RAIL RUNNER EXPRESS

Commuter rail transportation service between Belen, Albuquerque and Santa Fe. New Mexico Rail Runner Express passengers can transfer to the Airport Express Shuttle from the Downtown

Albuquerque Station free of charge. The Shuttle will drop-off and pick-up passengers on the baggage claim level at the Airport.

TRANSIT POLICIES

- No alcoholic beverages/open containers or smoking allowed on the trains, other transit vehicles, Rail Runner station areas or bus/shuttle stops.
- Do not leave children unattended.
- No hazardous materials allowed. Oxygen for personal use excepted.
- No pets allowed, with the exception of assistance animals.

RAIL RUNNER POLICIES

For your safety, stand behind the yellow warning strip on the edge of the platform as trains enter into, depart from and pass through the station.

- Passengers may bring a standard style, non-motorized bicycle on board the train for free. Each train is able to accommodate up to 12 bicycles.

Each passenger car has space dedicated for bicycles (a total of four per car); additional space in the areas reserved for wheelchairs may be available. Naturally, priority is given to passengers in wheelchairs.

- Bicycle storage is available on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Do not ride your bicycle on the train or on the platforms.
- Secure bicycle parking is available at each of the train stations.
- The Rail Runner is not liable for damaged or stolen bicycles.
